Terms & Conditions

By completing this form and submitting artwork, I confirm that I understand and comply with the following terms:

Insurance for my submission is my own responsibility, and The Presentation Arts Centre cannot accept any responsibility for my submission.

I am not submitting artwork that is damaged or in a state of deterioration, or in a condition that could harm other submissions, or the gallery and its patrons (toxic materials, mould, etc.) The Presentation Arts Centre reserves the right to refuse artwork that is submitted in any of these conditions.

My submission has a safe/adequate hanging system attached and is ready to hang for a prolonged period of time. I take full responsibility for the attached hanging system, which includes responsibility if the hanging system should fail or weaken during the run of the exhibition.

I am aware that the drop off and collection of artwork is my responsibility, and that The Presentation Arts Centre does not provide a delivery service before, during, or after the exhibition.

I am aware that I must drop off and collect my artwork during the specified drop off and collection times, or at a time that I have confirmed with The Presentation Arts Centre staff.

I am aware of The Presentation Arts Centre's Uncollected Artwork Policy, which is as follows: If left uncollected during the specified collection times, artwork will be temporarily stored in The Presentation Arts Centre for a maximum period of 60 days. The artist will be contacted numerous times and given multiple opportunities to arrange collection of their artwork during these 60 days. If the artist does not collect their artwork within these 60 days, The Presentation Arts Centre reserves the right to dispose of any forgotten artwork.

The Presentation Arts Centre will routinely examine and document the condition of artwork on display, with final photographic checks being carried out prior to collection. We encourage all artists to thoroughly check their artwork before leaving the premises also. The Presentation Arts Centre is not responsible for any damage that occurs to artwork post-collection.

I am aware that The Presentation Arts Centre reserves the right to use images of my submission in situ in future marketing and promotional materials.

I am aware that 20% commission applies to my submission, and I have adjusted my price accordingly. This commission does not apply to artwork created by children and teenagers aged 18 or under.

I am aware that only ONE artwork may be submitted per person, along with this form, and a €10 submission fee which must be paid upon submission.
